Wednesday Evening.

SPEECH, SONG, STORY

Impressive Memorial Exercises Were Held and the Stirring Days of the War Between South and North Recalled.

New Orleans, April 26.—In the heart of a city which has borne the brunt of battle and has worn the weeds of mourning for its sake, the Confederacy was revived again Wednesday by those who sigh for everything that it was intended to be, and who will love it until they die for what it means to them and to the south. The sacrifice, the agony and the glory of the great days were told again to those who never weary of the story, and who cheered and wept by turns as the bright or somber side of the picture was turned to view.

After an eloquent invocation had been delivered by Chaplain General Jones, the anthem, "Immortals," composed partly in memory of General R. E. Lee and John B. Gordon, by T. C. De Leon of Mobile, was sung, the audience breaking into enthusiastic applause at the close.

An address of welcome to the visiting veterans was then made by Gen. Estopinal and a solo, "Confederate Toast in Song," composed by Miss Given of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, was sung by Miss Carrie Nick.

Governor Blanchard was given a most enthusiastic welcome when he stepped to the front of the platform to speak for the people of the state of Louisiana. He, in the most cordial manner, bade the veterans welcome.

After a song, "In His Faded Suit of Gray," by Albert Melester, Mayor Behrman of New Orleans greeted the veterans in behalf of the city of New Orleans.

"My Heart's Love For a Soldier of 1865" was then beautifully sung by Mrs. A. Faure, and when the applause which greeted her had given way, Charles Payne Fenner of New Orleans delivered a brief address of welcome in behalf of the local Sons of Veterans.

The afternoon was given to the memory of the Confederate dead, and addresses extolling their valor, patience, patriotism and devotion were cheered again and again. Beautiful women and stalwart men combined their voices in and hands in praise of the whole service, and proved that while the men themselves were gone, the memory of what they were and what they did will never be forgotten by those who have inherited the land they fought to save. General W. L. Cabell presided.

After the session had been opened by prayer by Rev. A. Gordon Bakewell, chaplain general of the Louisiana division, a mixed choir of twenty voices sang in a beautiful manner "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

The first address was by Rev. De Lameriners of New Orleans, who spoke with much eloquence of R. E. Lee and Jefferson Davis. His address was received with exceeding warmth, and many times he was compelled to halt in his remarks to allow the applause to die away.

When he had concluded, the choir sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and General Cabell then introduced Rev. W. M. Alexander of New Orleans, who spoke on the constitutional side of the rights of the states to secede. He claimed it was the undoubted privilege of the states to leave the Union prior to 1861. "It is not right now," he said, "because the war has settled the fact." Mr. Alexander closed his address with an eloquent tribute to the women of the south.

The memorial services proper were ended by a benediction pronounced by Chaplain General Jones.

General Cabell then introduced Lieutenant Governor Sanders of Louisiana, who, in behalf of the Sons of Veterans, addressed the delegates. He assured the old soldiers that it was held by their sons to be the duty and privilege to show the world at large that what was done by the men of the south during and since the war was believed in, and cherished by their sons, and he said that it would be the duty of oncoming generations to see that the truth only is recorded of the deeds of the Confederate soldiers.

General Cabell introduced as the orator of the reunion Judge James B. Gantt of Jefferson City, Mo., the major general commanding the Missouri division of the Confederate Veterans. At night a series of exhibition drills was given in the auditorium, the first event being by the Beauregard cadets, commanded by Miss Lillian Norvell.

The "March of the States," led by Miss Mollie Blanchard, was a pretty feature.

A dress parade and prize drill by a number of boy cadet corps concluded the regular programme, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Fight Is Postponed.

Los Angeles, April 26.—The Nelson-Herrera fight was postponed until May 25 by consent of all parties.

PACKERS MAY LEAVE.

Say They Will Do So if Davidson Prosecutes Suits.

HAS BEEN DISCUSSED

It Is Declared the Swift and Armour Plants in Texas Have Been and Are Still Being Conducted as Experiments.

Chicago, April 26.—Prosecution of the suits against the Armour and Swift interests in Texas for the purpose of securing a $12,000,000 penalty for violation of the anti-trust laws may result in the closing of all packing plants in Texas and the withdrawal of the Chicago packing concerns from that state, says the Chronicle. It adds:

"This was the announcement made by officials of the Swift and Armour companies in discussing the effects of the suits brought against them Wednesday by the attorney general of Texas. The officials declared that the packing business in Texas was just being put on a proper basis, and that it was still in an experimental stage. They declare the question of withdrawing from business in Texas had been considered several times when the Chicago companies were being harassed by a multiplicity of suits, and that the litigation for $12,000,000, if pushed, will be followed by the withdrawal of the plants.

"The withdrawal of Chicago plants from Texas would mean the loss of work to 5,000 employees and the removal of an investment of $7,000,000."

JAIL ATTACKED.

Mob Threatened to Return and Dynamite Building, but Did Not.

Palestine, Tex., April 26.—A mob of 100 attacked the jail Wednesday night in an effort to get the negro arrested Tuesday for an attempt to assault Miss Hassell. Deputy Ritchie telephoned Sheriff Watts that he did not like the looks of things near the jail and Watts hurried to the jail. In the meantime he sent word to Hon. T. B. Greenwood to hurry to the jail. Greenwood made a talk to the mob. Sheriff Watts stood with a shotgun in the middle of the street and ordered them away. The mob left, threatening to come back and dynamite the jail, but they dispersed.

The young lady has identified the negro.

A dispatch from Aspermont announces the discharge of W. C. Guthrie of Fort Worth, who had been charged, together with J. C. Hills, of conspiracy in connection with the death of J. D. Colonel Abe Harris of Fort Worth, attired in full Confederate uniform, by invitation, made an address. He told of the great pleasure it afforded him to shake hands with a former foe and greet the boys who wore the blue.

INVESTMENT SEEKERS.

Francis, who was president of the Louisiana Purchase exposition; Breckenridge Jones, Murray Carleton and a number of other St. Louis capitalists, arrived here Thursday. ### ABELL GIVEN MEDAL.

Arkansas Confederate Veterans Present One to Old Commander.

New Orleans, April 26.—With the exception of the time consumed by the presentation to General W. L. Cabell of a gold medal by veterans from Arkansas, the second day of the Confederate reunion, in its opening hours, was devoted strictly to business. The reports of committees on credentials, battle abbey and historical committee were received and approved.

The presentation of the medal to General Cabell was made the occasion of an enthusiastic outburst of affectionate regard for that grizzled veteran which deprived him of speech for a few moments and nearly overmastered him entirely. Quickly recovering, however, he expressed his gratitude in a few words of deep appreciation which proved how highly he valued the testimonial from his former comrades.

The report of the committee on credentials gave the total number of camps represented as 755 and an aggregate of 2,315 votes. The vote by states is as follows: Alabama, 171; Arkansas, 139; District of Columbia, 7; Florida, 80; Georgia, 199; Illinois, 2; Kentucky, 126; Louisiana, 170; Indian Territory, 49; Maryland, 111; Mississippi, 196; Missouri, 78; North Carolina, 115; Ohio, 2; Oklahoma, 24; South Carolina, 136; Tennessee, 181; Virginia, 113; Texas, 447; West Virginia, 20; Pacific division, 18; Northwestern division, 31.

RICHMOND CHOSEN.

Next Confederate Reunion Will Be Held at Old Dominion Capital.

New Orleans, April 26.—Report on battle abbey declared in substance that situation had not changed.

Next business was the selection of next meeting place. Mayor McCarthy of Richmond nominated his city. Loud cheers greeted his words, and "Richmond! Richmond!" was shouted all over the hall.

General Cabell for the Transmississippi department and General George H. Harrison of Alabama presented Birmingham.

General Carlisle of South Carolina second the nomination of Richmond and Chaplain General Jones extended a personal invitation to meet at that city.

General Harrison, seeing that Richmond was largely favored, withdrew Birmingham.

"All in favor of holding the next reunion at Richmond will rise and give the rebel yell," said General Lee. A tempest of shouts sealed the selection of Richmond.

EULOGIZED BY OWEN.

Commander of Sons of Veterans Preaches Wearers of the Gray.

New Orleans, April 26.—At the conclusion of General Lee's address the Sons of Veterans, led by their commander in chief, Thomas M. Owen, entered the hall headed by their band, which formed in two ranks when half way up the hall, allowing the members of the organization to march between. The veterans rose in their honor, and there was a stirring scene as the gay gossamer of the ladies fluttered with the bright colors of the Confederacy, who came rapidly through the aisles side by side with men in the Confederate Gray.

Commander Owen made an address in acknowledgement of the courtesies shown the visitors by the municipality and people of New Orleans. He was prodigal of his praise of the Confederate soldiers, and evoked considerable enthusiasm among his hearers by his whole-souled eulogism.

FOR SABINE PASS.

Kountze Says It Is Being Discriminated Against.

Washington, April 26.—Before the house rivers and harbors committee Banker Kountze, the proposition to make Port Arthur a port of entry being considered, made an impassioned plea for Sabine Pass, saying it was being discriminated against by railroads.

Judge R. T. W. Duke, Kountze's attorney, made a lengthy speech. He said Port Arthur would be only a customs port fourteen miles inward; that a private canal was not capable of handling the commerce of the district, and that Port Arthur oil and lumber shipments dropped 3 per cent over previous year.

SMACKS SEIZED.

Mexican Authorities Take Vessels Belonging to America.

Mobile, April 26.—It is reported here that the fishing smacks Sterns of Mobile and Traston of Pensacola have been seized by the Mexican authorities while fishing off the Yucatan coast. It is said here that the Mexican government has made the seizures with a view of settling the rights of fishing territory of the Yucatan coast, where many vessels from this port and Pensacola load their catches and bring them here for shipment.

The captains of these vessels deny that they fished in Mexican waters.

COULTER'S WONDERFUL KITCHEN.

Few people have any idea of the great volume of business done in the comparatively small space occupied by "Coulter's Kitchen." It requires a visit and plenty of time to look carefully, and then you will not be able to see all the useful things in this wonderful housekeepers' treasury. The next surprising thing about it is the low prices which prevail, making it possible for you to supply your wants at an insignificant outlay. It would be useless to enumerate articles, but just call for one of Coulter's Kitchen cards, which is a partial index to the big stock, which has just been replenished with large shipments of new goods.

THE MARKETS.

Special to the Bryan Eagle.

Kansas City, Mo., April 23.—A run of 69 cars in the quarantine division today is selling steady with Friday, or not much different from last Monday. The general market was lower the middle of last week, but this had little effect on the quarantine market, as on the days of lower prices nothing was received in that division. The Silberstine steers from Rush Springs sold at $5.10 today, same price as last Monday. A few other droves sold at $4.75 to $4.90, but bulk of sales was at $4.00 to $4.45. The cattle do not grade up as high as a few weeks ago, naturally, and actual sales range considerably lower than the state of the market would seem to justify, account of lack of quality. Grass steers from southern Texas sold last week at $3.75 to $4.15, one shipment of very thin 900 pound steers selling at $3.20, bulls at $2.50 to $2.90. Receipts in the native division last week were very light after Tuesday so that packers killing pens were all cleaned up by the end of the week and they needed supplies today, stimulating trade in that way. A more even distribution of receipts through the week would make a steadier market, smoother handling of the business, and better results all around.

Hog prices closed last week about steady with the close of the previous week, after selling higher Tuesday and Wednesday. Receipts were 56,000 head, against 48,000 previous week, and quality was a shade inferior but still not indicating any rush to market. Prospects favor continued light runs and a strong market for the present, although a big run at Chicago today has put the price down there 10 cents. Market is 5 to 10 cents lower here, top $6.45, bulk of sales $6.30 to $6.40, weights below 200 pounds $6.25 to $6.35, pigs $5.30 to $6.00, supply 6500.

MONROE EDGE

We have sold 2000 acres of farm lands in the last few days, which is evidence of our ability in turning real estate.

We know it is a little unbecoming to boast, but you know every dog must do his own wagging, and thinking ours is duly entitled to a wag we haven't hesitated to give it one little shake.

We hardly understand why the investor invariably comes to us. But it is a known fact that he does.

We have had several thousand circulars printed, showing the good points about Bryan and Brazos County, and to meet the demand we expect in the near future we must increase our list of property for sale. If you are in the market for a home or have something to offer, come to see us. We have a demand for several places in Bryan to cost from $500.00 to $1000.00.

BRYAN, TEXAS, APRIL 27, 1906

Reports from the New Orleans reunion indicate that the old soldiers are having a grand time in that hospitable city.

Temple and Marlin business men have held a meeting in Marlin looking to the construction of an interurban line between the two points.

The Hearne Democrat says there is a well organized move on foot at that place to form a stock company and operate a line of boats on the Brazos river from Velasco to Stone City as soon as the government forces have cleaned out the stream and made it possible to carry out the enterprise. Hearne believes the consummation of the plan would result in better freight rates.

WEDDING AT HIGH NOON.

Mr. Gustavus Calder Street Jr. and Miss Nellie Fowle Smith Married Yesterday.

At high noon yesterday at the home of the bride's mother in this city, Mr. Gustavus Calder Street Jr. of Houston and Miss Nellie Fowle Smith were united in marriage by Rev. P. G. Sears, rector of Christ Episcopal church of Houston.

No cards were issued and only relatives of the contracting parties and four couple of young friends, Misses Garth, McConico, Marie Adams and Nonie Adams, Messrs. F. C. Oliver, O. E. Saunders, Robt. W. Howell and B. C. Pittuck were present.

The wedding was solemnized on the thirteenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McQueen, which added to the interest and significance of the happy occasion.

Mrs. W. S. Wilson played the wedding march and just before the entrance of the bride and groom, Miss Hettie Smith, sister of the bride, sang "Because" with much sweetness of expression. The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of black and white Panama cloth and carried a white prayer book with a single white bride rose.

The decorations, arranged under the direction of Mrs. James Otis Chance, were tastefully designed and most pleasing in effect. The reception hall, parlor and dining room were included. Magnificent American Beauty roses, LaFrances and Marechal Niels, mock orange, Easter lilies, Carnations and pot plants contributed to the decorative features. The wide doorway between parlor and dining room was arched with mock orange, and from the center was suspended a handsome basket of Easter lilies and carnations, beneath which the bride and groom stood while the marriage rite was celebrated and congratulations showered upon them.

The refreshments included cream moulded in the form of Easter lilies, and angel food. Punch was also served in the dining room from a scintillating bowl embedded in white roses and mock orange.

The presents were numerous and notably handsome, attesting the popularity of the young people in their home cities and elsewhere. Especial interest is attached to the gift of Miss Street, aunt of the groom, to the bride. This is an exquisite brooch of emeralds and pearls and has been an heirloom in the Street family for four generations.

Mr. and Mrs. Street left yesterday afternoon to spend a week in San Antonio, and will be at home in Houston, 1302 La Branch street, May 3.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Geo. W. Smith and was reared in Bryan. Refined and cultured, sweet and generous in disposition and lovely in person, she is a social favorite and will win her way into all hearts in her new home.

Mr. Street is a son of Mr. G. C. Street Sr., of Houston, and graduated from the A. and M. college the past year as a cadet captain. He is intelligent, energetic and manly in character, and is meeting with success in business which he entered immediately upon leaving school.

Bret Harte's Consol.
Bret Harte's consoling of Glasgow was a sort of joke. William Black told me that once when he was returning from a tour with Harte as they slowly entered a city Bret said, "What huge, ugly place is this?"

Justified.
"I wish they'd invent a new expression occasionally," said Top as he perused the account of a recent wedding. "It's always 'the blushing' bride."

After the Consultation.
"Well," replied Mrs. Top, "when you consider what sort of husbands most girls have to marry you can't wonder at their blushing."

Harry Sullivan and the Amateur.
The famous tragedian, Harry Sullivan, took his art so seriously that it was very seldom indeed that he perpetrated a joke on the stage, although when away from the theater he was one of the most humorous of men. On one occasion, however, Sullivan could not resist the temptation of giving an apt retort to an amateur who, as Ratcliff to his Richard III., had quite overlooked the necessity of committing this words to memory.

"During the early part of the tragedy," says Mr. Robert M. Sillard in his "Life of Harry Sullivan," "this too confident amateur strutted agreeably and elicited applause from his friends in the front. In the tent scene he screwed up his energies, and when Sullivan, as Richard, started from his knees at the conclusion of his comments on his dream, exclaiming, 'Who's there?' Ratcliff in his excitement stammered out the answer:

"'Tis I, my lord. The early village cock—and then abruptly stopped, having apparently forgotten the next line—i. e., 'Hath twice done salutation to the morn.'"

"Sullivan surveyed the stultified aspect of his officer for a few seconds with a sardonic grin, as if enjoying his agony, and at length growled out in an audible tone:

"'Why don't you crow, then?'"

Nurturing a Cheerful Spirit.
Lucky was the patient in Cedarville who could secure the services of Aunt Bond as his nurse, but he must make up his mind that while all his wants would receive due attention and he would have a fair amount of coddling there were some things in which he could not count on having his own way.

"Now, you just take that look off your face, won't you?" she half coaxed, half commanded a man who was recovering from pneumonia. "You aren't half as sick as you were a month ago. Let your thoughts dwell on that, and let 'em dwell on this: There's lots o' folks outdoors a-falling from the tops o' buildings and a-getting run into and over by automobiles and contraptions of all sorts, besides those that are yielding to temptation o' various kinds and being sent to jail and then to states prison. And while all these dreadful things are going on outside, what is happening to you? You are getting well at home, in peace and plenty, and what's more, in as handsome a walnut bedstead as there is in all Cedarville."

"You let your mind dwell on these things a minute, and then you turn over and go to sleep."

Leap Year Proposals.
The origin of the peculiar woman's right of leap year is said to date back to the fifth century. St. Bridget, so the story goes, was troubled because the women under her charge insisted on their right of proposing to the men. Accordingly she went to St. Patrick and begged him to settle the matter by fixing certain seasons in which women might take the initiative. St. Patrick promised them every seventh year, but then, pleased by the persuasive eloquence of St. Bridget, he said they should have the longest year in the calendar, and that was every fourth year, when February had an extra day.

So Long.
With respect to the origin of the familiar parting salute, "So long," there is a suggestion that it is derived from the Norwegian "Saa laenge," a common form of farewell, equivalent in meaning to "au revoir," and pronounced like "so long," with the "g" softened. There was a fair number of Norwegians among the settlers in America, to judge by names, and it is quite likely the phrase was picked up from them. It is in general use among the Dutch in South Africa.—London Globe.

The Tactful Barber.
"Do you shave yourself, sir?"
"None of your business."
"I was only going to say, sir, that it's done as well as any professional could do it."
That nettled him an extra tip.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Representative Newspaper

The Cotton Journal will meet that demand

Broad enough in scope to interest every person in the Cotton belt, while it will stand distinctively as a representative of the Cotton growing interest, it will cover the whole field so thoroughly that it will be a necessity to every Cotton merchant and manufacturer the world over. The statistical department will be in charge of eminent statisticians, and no expense will be spared to make this department the most perfect in the world.

Harvie Jordan, Editor-in-Chief, and Richard Cheatham, Business Mgr., have in their work as President and Secretary, respectively of the Southern Cotton Association, won victories in the interest of Cotton producers of more value to the country than any great victories ever won by a conquering army on the battlefield, and their work has added untold wealth to the Cotton States. The Cotton Journal will continue the battle for Southern supremacy and fair play. The public has for many years heard practically only one side of the Cotton story. It will be the mission of The Cotton Journal to tell the other side. We desire several correspondents in every beat, district or township of the Cotton belt, and in addition to our present list, every subscriber whose subscription reaches us prior to May 17th, will be placed upon our list of regular correspondents for information concerning condition of crops. #### The Housekeeper's Treasury.

This is another name for "Coulter's Kitchen" and describes it to a "t." because it contains mighty near every useful article ever needed about the home. Mr. Coulter has had wonderful success with this department, established three years ago and widely advertised until it is a household word. The volume of business in this department alone the past year foots up $11,500.00. The goods are sold at such a small profit that Mr. Coulter was able to turn the money invested ten times during the year. If you haven't been a Kitchen customer it's your loss, and one trial will convince you.

The dewberry season will soon be on, and the crop promises to be unusually large. Coulter has made special preparations for laying in a large supply of pots, pans and fruit jars; he has a new kind that you should see before you buy your supply of fruit jars.

Mrs. W. H. Walker, Mrs. Ben Priddy and Mrs. C. G. Walker will give a tea at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Walker Friday from 4 to 7 for the benefit of the Methodist church. Everybody invited. 121

HEALTH IN BRYAN.

E. J. Jenkins Says Care of Digestion Solves Problem of Long Life.

E. J. Jenkins believes that the problem of long life is solved by proper care of the digestive organs. Let the stomach get out of condition and soon there will be nervousness, irritation, furred tongue, specks before the eyes, weakness, debility, indigestion, and other physical and mental troubles that directly result from a weakened stomach.

Of all the vital organs, the stomach is the most frequently abused, and hence, the one which most frequently fails, and so with the discovery of a remedy like Mi-o-na stomach tablets, which is sold on an absolute guarantee to strengthen the digestive system, aid in assimilation of food, and cure all troubles caused by indigestion, an important step has been taken toward solving the question of good health and long life.

E. J. Jenkins sells Mi-o-na on an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. A large box of the tablets costs but 50 cents, if it helps you; nothing if it fails.

The Ross Volunteer hop takes place at College tonight and The Eagle is requested by a member of the company to announce that only those having invitation cards will be admitted.

Woolen Will Wear IN ALL WEATHERS

Argue as they will, one fact remains: Cotton adulterated cloth will neither keep its shape nor wear under any conditions. Pure woolen cloth will. Our Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes are made of pure wools, tested by the wool test, which is the beginning of all

Stein-Bloch Clothes

The only reason why cotton is substituted for wool in mercerized fabrics is to cheapen the goods. A house is no stronger than its foundation. So with clothes. Cheap fabrics mean cheap clothes; and no matter how shrewdly they are tailored, they will be untrustworthy. Stein-Bloch employ no mercerized or cotton adulterated fabrics. Their goods are pure caustic-tested wool, and the clothes made from them wear and keep their shape.

The Stein-Bloch Wool Test

The Stein-Bloch Wool Test consists of a boiling solution of water and caustic potash, the chemical action of which dissolves wool but not cotton. The two samples here shown were originally of the same length, the test proved one to be all wool, consuming the part immersed and leaving only the blackened edge. The other proved to be an adulteration containing a large per cent of mercerized cotton.

considerable sums transferred to its credit by correspondents in London, Paris and New York. These transfers will be made to the mint on Fifth street, and money will be available at that point. The executive committee of savings banks met Wednesday. Much satisfaction was expressed at the fact that all vaults of these banks had been found to be in excellent condition. The savings banks will all open for business on the same day the commercial banks set the example.
Three of the handsomest buildings in the business district of the city are to be restored as soon as men and material can be secured. The first of these buildings is the St. Francis hotel, the second the Crocker building and the third the Shreve building. All these structures were gutted from cellar to roof by the fire, but unharmed by the earthquake. Their reconstruction will consist practically of nothing but replacing floors, partitions and fittings. This announcement was officially made.

SIXTEEN THOUSAND.

That Number of Persons Being Cared For at Presidio.
San Francisco, April 26.—Sixteen thousand persons, mostly in tents, are being cared for at Presidio. All available tents are in use, but 50,000 are looked for. There are no contagious diseases in or around Presidio.
General Greeley telegraphed the war department at Washington a list of additional dead, but stated this did not increase the fatalities.
Coroner Welch had a gang of men at work removing bodies which had been buried in front of the hall of justice in Portsmouth square on the first day of the fire. Thirty bodies were taken out and transferred to Laurel Hill cemetery or given to undertakers upon request of relatives. The coroner and his assistants later went to Washington square and finished the task of removing bodies that received temporary burial during the fire. With the completion of this work another danger to health has been done away with.

IN NORTHERN COUNTIES.

News Just Received of the Damage Done by Earthquake.
San Francisco, April 26.—News has just been received here of the damage done by the earthquake of April 18 in the northern counties of the state.
In Lakeport, Lake county, a severe shock was felt at 5:40 a. m. The two-story brick walls of the Masonic hall, in course of construction, was reduced to ruins. Several other brick blocks were cracked, chimneys toppled over throughout the town and show windows of business houses for full length of Main street were shattered. No one was injured.
At Albion, Mendocino county, a heavy shock was felt. The Occidental hotel is a wreck. All big sawmills in this section were badly damaged. They have shut down for some time. So far as can be learned there were no lives lost.
At Anderson, in Shasta county, chimneys tumbled down and windows, dishes and furniture in houses were demolished. There are many wide fissures in the earth.

NO EARLY END.

Cannon Says Congress Will Be In Session Some Time Yet.
Washington, April 26.—"Congress will adjourn some time between the middle of June and the 1st of August. That is my guess," replied Speaker Cannon to an inquiry about the probable length of the present session.
The speaker continued: "There is a certain amount of work congress must do before adjourning. Little of that work has been done yet. The appropriation bills have been fairly well advanced by the house, but the senate has done practically nothing with them. I see no prospect of a very early adjournment. We will be here for some time yet."

Will Call Special Session.

Oakland, Cal., May 26.—Governor Pardee will call a special session of the legislature for the purpose of taking action on the San Francisco situation.

WEDNESDAY'S WORK.

Nearly Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Rations Distributed.
San Francisco, April 26.—Through out the city Wednesday nearly 350,000 rations were distributed. This, of course, is an average estimate based on reports from a few of the food depots. At one station of average size Wednesday provisions were given out to 762 people an hour for ten hours. Much fruit has also been distributed. All flour that was received in sacks has been exchanged at the bakeries pound for pound for baked bread. Almost all the bakeries in the unburned district have opened, and are selling bread at the regular price, 5 cents a loaf.
There is no danger of a meat famine. Representatives of the packing companies in South Francisco reported to the relief committee that there are now in the yards 1,500 cattle, 3,000 sheep and 500 hogs.
More than 200 cattle are being killed and dressed daily, and hogs and sheep are put under the knife as soon as they arrive on the cars. The full quota of employees is at work. The Southern Pacific has given orders that all cattle cars are to be rushed to the city at top speed, and are to have precedence even over the passenger trains.
Wholesale grabbing of supplies by some, while others are in dire want, has caused the military authorities to order a new system in the distribution of food and clothing.
Pitiful stories of suffering, ignorance and helplessness are flooding the relief committee from all sides. Of the great refugee camps, that in the Presidio, which is under government control, seems most thoroughly systematized.
Former Chief of Police Wittman informed the relief committee that he had induced the following to re-open stores: Twenty-eight grocers, eleven butchers, seven creameries, nine bakeries, in addition to those previously authorized to re-open, and four restaurants. Committee fixes prices.

ANOTHER SHOCK.

Lasted Nearly a Minute, and Caused Considerable Alarm.
San Francisco, April 26.—At 3:15 Wednesday afternoon a shock of earthquake was felt. It lasted nearly a minute, and caused considerable alarm, but no one was injured. A number of walls of burned buildings which were standing in a weak condition were thrown down, and frail buildings were considerably shaken up, but the damage done was slight.
The shock was also felt in Oakland and Berkeley, but in these places it was very slight, and of brief duration.
The earthquake shock caused the death of Mrs. Annie Whitaker aged twenty-five. She was at work in the kitchen of her home on Wall street, in the Mission district, when the shock came. The chimney was left in a tottering condition by the heavy shock last Wednesday, and crashed through the roof upon the young woman and fractured her skull. Her body was taken to the morgue and burned an hour later.

SEND TO PHELAN.

President by Proclamation Asks Contributors to Do This.
Washington, April 26.—In a proclamation President Roosevelt urges the American people now to send their contributions for the alleviation of the distress in San Francisco directly to former Mayor Phelan, chairman of the finance committee, San Francisco, instead of to the American Red Cross. The president pays a high tribute to the work accomplished by the citizens' committee of San Francisco and indicates that the necessity for working through the Red Cross exclusively has passed.

FRIGHTFUL FRENZY.

Fought Like Beasts, and Four Priests Terribly Mistreated.
Warsaw, April 26.—Religious frenzy characterized the fighting at Lesnos on April 22 between Catholics and Moravians, when ten persons were killed and seventy-seven wounded. Four priests were terribly mutilated. The men fought like beasts. The antagonists gouged out the eyes of their adversaries. The Catholics, who were beaten, threaten to arrange a St. Bartholomew massacre.
Wins Another Championship.
Austin, April 26.—R. H. Connerly of Austin Wednesday again broke fifty blue rocks, thereby winning the championship of the state at trap shooting, in addition to the Houston Chronicle cup, which he won the first day of the match.
